IN THE REALM OF THE FEMININE

The Proper Headdress

ZANOBIE was slim and dark, and not at all pretty. Even her chum had to admit it. But she prided herself on possessing brains instead of beauty, so she covered a lanky

To dark-skinned girls, the line of brilliant and the star is wonderfully becoming—to others, it would prove disastrous to looks

figure with high-waisted, graceful, clinging gowns, affected trains with tasseled points, pulled her hair around her face as much as possible, binding a ribbon or a band about it to hold it snugly and to conceal its thinness, made one forget her muddy skin by wearing long drop earrings of bright scarlet, and covered her thin throat with frilly ruffles, allowing a V in the front. Her few pieces of jewelry were always strikingly original—as she was. So she passed for the most attractive girl in her set, and eventually married a millionaire artist.

Perhaps you can profit by Zanobie. If you are little and blonde, do you dress simply but in a very feminine way? Do you face your hats with black, to make your face fairer and your hair more golden? Do you dress your hair in a Greek knot, and in the evenings wear a band, Greek fashion, about the forehead, or a band of roses, to emphasize your flower-like attraction? If you, too, are tall and thin, with wispy hair, can you make a "rug-fitting" cap of glittery beads, with perhaps a green or scarlet ball dangling from a cord, and falling over one shoulder? That's a new style—it conceals the fact that your hair is poor, and the swinging red ball is a tantalizing novelty that will draw attention to your original style.

If you are fair and statuesque, do you know that the Watteau styles were created just for you? If you are vivacious and dark, do you know that a band around the head with two feathers, horn-like, at the sides will lend mischief to your face? Try these coquetries.

Questions and Answers

To "Girl with homely feet"—I shall be glad to write a Chat covering this trouble for the girl who contemplates the barefoot walks along the beach this summer. I would not worry over the shade of your skin on those calves, for a coat of tan will attend to that. If your big toes override the others, as you say, you need a chiropodist to look for the trouble. He will likely ask you if you have been wearing shoes too short and a lot more, but he may help the trouble now before it goes on to a deformity.

Please tell me how to make dimples come into my cheeks. Also, what is good for a red face?—M. B. Reply—Only Dame Nature can favor you with dimples. The red face comes from many causes—I cannot tell which from your note. Do you wear your clothes too tight? Is your digestion perfect? Look into these things.

Y. W. VISITORS KEPT BUSY AT ENTERTAINMENTS

Social Activities Keep Executives Occupied During Afternoons and Evenings

Miss Lillian James, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast field of the Y. W. C. A., and Miss Anne K. Brewer of the Oakland association, have been much feted during their stay here by the various clubs affiliated with the local association and by other organizations as well.

Friday afternoon the Jolly McKinleyettes, a girls' club composed of students of McKinley high school, entertained for the visiting secretaries at a social. Included in the program of events were many which brought out the talents of the girls' organization.

Among the numbers were a duet by Ann Chong and Lucy Hoot, a piano solo by Violet Chun Hoon, a song by the senior girls, a duet by Edith Cottrell and Thelma Auerbach, a recitation by Esther Kahn and a closing feature "Days in Holland" with Thelma Wickie and Virginia Williamson in Dutch costume. These young ladies gave an exhibition of a Dutch dance which was much appreciated.

Miss James talked to the members on the work that the young ladies were doing on the mainland, and suggested that the girls here correspond with those on the mainland for the purpose of securing an interchange of ideas.

Miss Annetta Dieckmann, educational secretary, told of the history of the club, from its infancy to the present date, and related how the ideals had been held to from the beginning. During the afternoon light refreshments were served by a bevy of girls under the supervision of Thelma Auerbach. The decorations were white and green, the club colors.

In the evening the Hawaiian Girl's Club entertained for the visitors with athletics, music and a general program of the club events. The music, which was Hawaiian, featured Mrs. Helen McMillan and Charlotte Abolo. This club has made a great success as an evening was fully up to the club standard. This afternoon a membership tea is being given at the association, and all who wish are given an opportunity to meet the visiting secretaries, as no invitations were issued. In the evening line were to be Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Miss C. C. Varney, Miss Lillian James, Miss Anne Brewer and Mrs. Raymond C. Brown. Mrs. Jack Guard and Miss Minnie Todd are committee chairmen in charge of the tea.

According to a report of the State Mining Bureau, California produced 58,240,620 barrels of oil in 1915. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad raised its embargo on corn on all points except points east of Pittsburg.

HONOLULU IS AT WAR WHILE WIFE WORKS TO LIVE

Struggles of Women of England Told in Letter to Dick Kekona

Something of the hardships endured by the women of the working classes in England while their male relatives are at the war is told in a letter written by Mrs. Diamond Kekona to her father-in-law, Dick Kekona, of the Honolulu police station. Diamond Kekona, who is a Hawaiian, has enlisted with the British colors and is now serving in the war.

Writing from Kidderminster by the last mail Mrs. Amy Kekona says: "Diamond is now in the army and I am living here all by myself and I am very lonely. I have had to start work in the factories again or else I should starve, for the government allows the wives only 12 shillings and sixpence per week and by the time the rent and coal are paid out of that, I have only two or three shillings left for food, so you can see I have a hard struggle to live. Again we are expecting our carpet factories to close very soon and then I shall not know what to do for my living. I would love to go into the munition works but my Diamond says I am too delicate, so I think I shall have to rest contented. I do hope this dreadful war will soon be ended for it is a great worry to me now that my husband has had to join."

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Honolulu people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. THE INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ka is surprising. The Hollister Drug Company, Adv.

Dr. J. H. Hugh Harrison, chief colonel-surgeon for Honduras, was murdered at Belize, British Honduras, by a Spanish inmate of an asylum there. A stock dividend of 100 per cent on the ordinary and restricted ordinary shares was declared by the Imperial Tobacco Company of England and Ireland.
